After School Activities Guidelines

1. Student makes a full commitment to attend all sessions of the activity.
2. The advisor staff member will take attendance at the beginning of each session. If a student misses a session, they should either provide a pre-excuse before missing the session or bring a written excuse after missing the session.
4. Parents will be contacted if students fail to attend a session without an excuse.
5. Lack of attendance may result in student being dropped from activity.

I have read and understand the after school activity guidelines.

- After school activities will take place on the Gardiner campus after school until 5:00 pm.
- Students must be picked up by 5:00pm or plan on taking the activity bus.
- The activity bus is ONLY available to those students who are involved in after school activities.
- If a student needs to ride the activity bus, please have your child sign up in the front office on the clipboard at least 24-hours before the session begins.
- Bus routes will be developed based upon the addresses of students on the bus. Please be advised that bus stops may be closer or further from your home than regular bus stops.
